Case Synopsis: On Tuesday (07/14/26) at approximately 2348 hrs, Champaign County Deputy Sheriffs were dispatched to a residence in the Urbana Township, to meet with an individual regarding damage that had just occurred to her residence. During this incident, a female resident had called deputies to her home, after a large rock had been thrown through the window of her residence. It was later determined that her adult daughter that resided with her, had recently been threatened by a female regarding a male partner that they had shared in common. The daughter identified the female suspect and attempts were later made to contact that subject. However, the female suspect would later cease contact with deputies, essentially refusing to meet for questioning. The female suspect has not been located as of this report.
